THRIVE

News and Trends from Thrive

HEY THRIVERS!!!

Imagine crushing your AM workout, then fueling up with a frosty Surge IV that tastes like vacation in a bottle, all while your snacks stay chill in The Anchor. Chaos? Conquered. That's the Thrive magic we're brewing. Welcome to our kickoff newsletter, your playbook for wellness wins that actually deliver. We're blending gut vibes, trends, team triumphs, and event energy with a spotlight on our gear that's got your back (and your bottle). Let's swap "hangry" for "healthy."
Ready to level up? Join Thrive and let's roll!

WHO WE ARE

Here at Thrive, we simplify wellness and guide busy high school and college students toward a healthier lifestyle. It is our goal to reorient young adults' mindsets around nutrition, specifically supplements, vitamins, and protein. Everything that you fuel your body with can have all of these amazing benefits. We are trying to steer people away from the short term fix of caffeine, the 75 hard, or juice cleanses. At Thrive, we place priority on nourishing your body with the good stuff and are in it for the long haul!

But how?

Thrive helps students worldwide prioritize their wellness by providing evidence-based training, tools, and resources that support emotional health, social skills, and mental well-being, enabling effective learning and personal development.

INDUSTRY TRENDS

Most companies in the VEI world are not doing things similar to Thrive. Some companies have similar ideas with the protein powders and healthy liquid IVs, but we are one of the only companies with our own water bottle designed for the products we offer. Wellness trends are increasingly growing each year, often with a new facade. At Thrive, we are here to be the wellness that works -- not just a year long facade like most other companies.

MARKET NEWS

Emerging Beverage Category: Focus-Flow Waters
Nootropic sparkling waters offer a "brain boost" without the caffeine jitters. By using ingredients like Lion's Mane and L-Theanine, these drinks help busy professionals and students stay sharp and calm. It is less about a sudden energy rush and more about staying focused and balanced all day.

Emerging Supplement Brand: KRE-EX
KRE-EX is simplifying sports nutrition with pure Creatine and electrolyte blends. They avoid flashy labels and hidden ingredients to focus on high-quality, honest formulas. This "back-to-basics" style appeals to serious athletes who want clean supplements that simply get the job done without extra fillers.

Emerging Wellness Brand: GLOW-LYTE
GLOW-LYTE mixes skincare benefits with daily hydration. Their drinks use collagen and hyaluronic acid to help people stay hydrated while supporting healthy skin. It is a popular choice for the "athleisure" crowd, turning a basic workout drink into a daily beauty and recovery ritual.

Personalized Longevity Supplement Trend
The longevity movement is moving from science labs to store shelves as more people focus on "aging better." Interest is growing in cellular repair and NAD+ boosters to help the body stay young. With help from health apps and high-end vitamins, this trend is all about living a longer, healthier life.

WHAT'S NEW TO OUR WEBSITE?

Our Top 10 finish in our November Tradeshow was excellent, but not enough. Thrive's Ishaan Manoor, Vinanya Penumadula, Siyansh Virmani, and Hita Khandelwal all worked extra hard over winter break to ensure we take the top spot in our Febuary Tradeshow.

- Our website team has supercharged performance with a smart 48 hour caching system that makes product data load instantly, reducing server calls by 99%.
- Adaptive design elements now automatically adjust button colors, tooltips, and color swatches based on the products you're viewing for a more intuitive experience.
- A new custom cursor system provides helpful tooltips as you explore products, making navigation more informative and engaging.
- The newsletter section now features an archive of past editions with easy to access download buttons so you can catch up on what you missed.
- Our website team migrated to Cloudflare Pages for unlimited bandwidth and streamlined the checkout process to work seamlessly on all devices.

BIRTHDAY SHOUTOUT!

This month we didn't have any birthdays. To compensate Thrive is celebrating half-birthdays to ensure those with summer birthdays aren't missing out!

We are celebrating our beloved CEO Alice Ho, and our outstanding CCO Hita Khandelwal. They will be recieving a birthday card and their favorite drink, happy birthday Thrivers!

THE KUDOS CORNER 👏👏👏

Student of the Month!!

Alex Wohlfahrt! Alex has demonstrated exceptional work for the accounting department and for the company as a whole. He has gone above and beyond what is asked of him and does work while no one is watching. He has spent much time outside of class making sure everything he is responsible for is completed and helps keep our company on top of things. Here at Thrive, we are so grateful for employees like Alex and can't wait to see what he still has in store!

Student of the Quarter!!

Macy Evans! Macy continues to grow in her leadership as she is in constant communication with all other chiefs and our CEO. She has made sure our company is running smoothly and each department knows what their responsibility is. She has worked many hours outside of class keeping the HR department and the company as a whole, thriving. We very much appreciate all she does for this company and are very excited to continue working with her!
